ALMA

Fr. T. Royce (Ore.) has made a new tape for the house clock to handle the change in order. Instead of two classes there are now three in the morning, lunch with short reading at 12:15, and one class in the afternoon beginning at 3:15.

Fr. McCarthy from the Vatican Observatory addressed the theologians on Sept. 19 on Astronomy. He has been staying at Alma while doing research at nearby Lick Observatory.

The Alma choir went to Santa Clara to sing for the Jesuit Mothers on Sept. 23.

Very Rev. Fr. Assistant arrived on Oct. 5. During his stay he spoke to the theologians about the Holy Father, the General, and the state of the Church in Italy.

The Jubilee celebration of Bro. Lefourn's 50th anniversary in the Society was held on Oct. 10. Many Fathers and Brothers came to greet Brother personally, including the California and Irish Provincials. Before the feast a personal letter from Fr. General congratulating Brother was read.

Fr. Wall began the series of monthly exhortations on Oct. 14.

Mr. Mason (Cal.) gave a slide lecture on Japan, covering not only the Jesuit houses there but also picturing several Buddhist and Shinto shrines.

Over 40 of the community were guests for the day at the Salesian theogate at Aptos on Oct. 18. Lunch was had shortly after arrival, followed by a soft-ball game in the afternoon. Dinner was served al fresco in the late afternoon. Salesian hospitality was superb—as was Salesian soft-ball. They won 8-4.

BELLARMINE

A fond farewell was paid to Fr. G. Flynn, who was changed to Brophy a day or two before school began. The past twelve years of enthusiastic and devoted service to Bellarmine will always be gratefully remembered by faculty and students. Hundreds of the students who knew Father signed a letter of appreciation thanking him for his boundless spirit and inspiration.

Schola Brevis was held on Wednesday, Sept. 5. The Mass of the Holy Ghost was celebrated on Friday, Sept. 14 by Fr. Gruye in the gym. Fr. Costa preached the sermon. School enrollment numbers a few less than 800 students, of whom over 200 are boarders.

Sodality: The Sodality under the direction of its new Moderator, Fr. O'Toole, has already started off the year with a successful drive for Queen's Work subscriptions. Several Fathers and scholastics are helping with committees and probation groups.

Last summer about twenty-seven Sodalityists attended the SSCA at Fresno and returned greatly enthused for the social apostolate; it is hoped that this enthusiasm will form a springboard for an active year ahead.

The Sodality Dance is to be held in the gym on Nov. 2. Having the dance on the campus this year was found to be a more convenient arrangement.

Debating: One of our present

Senior students, Darrell Salomon, won first place in Extempore Speech at the National Speech Tournament which was held at Muskogee, Oklahoma last June under the auspices of the National Forensic League. The Bellarmine Chapter of the NFL won the Leading Chapter Award of Northern California for this year. The credit for this goes to past and present members of the NFL and their coaches, among whom in the past were Fr. Swain, Mr. St. Clair and Mr. Weber. Fr. Pettid is the present moderator assisted by Messrs. Connolly, M. Buckley, De Paoli, Conroy and Lee.

Dramatics: The comedy "Three Men on a Horse" was presented during the week of October 25 in the Newman Club theatre at San Jose State. The spring play has been announced as the Passion Play "Golgotha", and long-term preparations are already under Sports: Bellarmine's varsity football team has won its first four games by very decisive scores, winning over San Lorenzo, Watsonville, Salinas, and Serra.

The J. V.'s coached by Messrs McConville and Conn lost to a strong Watsonville eleven 13-0, but came back to win over Salinas 19-0 and Palma 44-19. The Frosh team coached by Messrs Cobb and Stolz were tied by Salinas 12-12 in the last eight seconds, but recorded wins over Menlo-Atherton 24-14, and Riordan 21-0.

Fr. Devlin's Cross-country track team is now in its third season of competition with an enthusiastic squad of 25. Center meets at Stanford and San Jose High find them competing with as many as 150 boys from ten schools on a single afternoon.

Varia: The Rally Dance, the first dance of the year, held in the gym on Thursday, Oct. 11, the night before the Serra game, was very well attended. The proceeds were used to defray athletic expenses.

Bill Farrington, a Junior, and his father were seriously injured in an auto accident while driving home after the Serra game. Two other students were in the car but escaped with minor injuries.

On October 1 the American Assistant came to visit for a few days.

The school retreat was held on Oct. 2-3-4. Fr. Rooney spoke to the Seniors, Fr. J. McIntosh to the Juniors and Sophomores in the gym, and Fr. McDermott to the Freshmen in the boys' chapel.

The Block Club, under its new moderator, Father Costa, now requires a member to have earned a varsity block, to maintain at least an overall "C" average, and to be a member of some other organization than the Block B.

The foundation for a new maintenance building has been laid between the practice field and the track. This will replace the old shop building by the handball courts.

Dads' Club: The Bellarmine Dads held their first barbecue on Sept. 9 to welcome new members and to build up enthusiastic support for the athletic program. Fr. Plushkell, athletic moderator, praised the men for their past generosity and encouraged them for the future by introducing boys dressed in sports uniforms provided by the Dads' Clubs of the past.

The first Dinner-Dance of the year was held in the gym on Saturday night Oct. 13 with 300 in attendance. The proceeds were used for the building fund.

Bellarmino Guild: The annual Dessert Bridge was held in the gym on October 25, with a capacity crowd in attendance.

Alumni: On the last Sunday of September the Alumni held a barbecue on the lawn near the dining hall. A good number came but due to an unfortunate shift of dates for this occasion there were not as many as last year.

BROPHY

Brophy began the year with a record number of students—298. In the Freshman class there were 14.

Fr. Franklin, whom Fr. Provincial sent to us for the summer months, along with Fr. Jacobs and Mr. Griffin did a magnificent piece of work in restoring and setting up the Physics lab. We are indeed grateful to Fr. Provincial and to Bellarmine for lending us Fr. Franklin.

On the night of Sept. 20th, the Brophy Dads Club sponsored an "Open House" and a Chicken Dinner for the Brophy Parents. The "Open House" was for all to inspect the many improvements which have been made during the summer. The Library had been enlarged, the second floor received a new face of tile, the offices were decorated. After the "Open House" the chicken dinner was served to over 700 people. The evening ended with the raffle of a '56 Cadillac. The proceeds of this raffle are being used to pay for the equipment bought during the summer for the labs.

Fr. Babbish and part of his civics class attended the Maricopa County Democratic Convention on Sept. 21st. Fr. Brannon gave the Benediction.

Fr. Carlin is the new Prefect of Discipline; Fr. Wondra is the Minister and Fr. R. Brannon the Sub-Minister. Fr. Flynn is one of the late additions to the faculty. His appointment to Brophy came a few days before School opened.

We have 34 boarders, which is capacity. Among them we have a boy from Thailand and also the son of Don Ameche.

Fr. Babbish gave a talk on the Sodality to the parishioners at St. Simon and Jude in Glendale, Ariz.

On Sept. 15th the Mass of the Holy Ghost was held. Fr. Doherty gave an excellent sermon to the boys and assembled parents.

Fr. Doherty is the new director for the Apostleship of Prayer for the Tucson Diocese.

Fr. Monihan gave the freshmen retreat.

Fr. Harrington gave a talk on Proposition No. 3 to the Serra Club.

The box score for the football teams are—Varsity coached by Fr. Dodd reads 1-1-1. The J. V's coached by Mr. Sunderland has a record of two wins and one loss. The Frosh coached by Mr. Frietas and Fr. Doherty has one win and two losses. But they are coming up fast—their last win was 33-0.

Mr. Brill has started the Glee Club and reports that he should have a good first year with them.

Fr. Savall, S. J., when in Phoenix with the relic of Our Holy Father Ignatius, gave the Community exhortation.

Fr. Harrington is the Chaplain for the 4th Degree Knights of Columbus.

Bros. Quirin, Davis and Connolly were an excellent addition to the community. Br. Davis works in the Office and Bros. Connolly and Quirin do the maintenance work.

FRESNO

As in schools everywhere else, so at Ryan Preparatory October was a month of orientation and experiment. The only notable break in the busy schedule of classes and study halls came on Tuesday, October ninth, Fresno School Day at the District Fair. A busload of white-shirted seminarians were unloaded at the fairgrounds for a couple of hours among the booths and exhibits. This outing, together with occasional Saturday excursions to Grant's Grove, or the Merced River, was very welcome.

On the fifth of October, two hundred regional delegates of the Serra International from California, Arizona, and Nevada gathered at Monterey's Casa Munrae Hotel to begin their district convention. Fr. W. Finnegan, rector of the Seminary, drove over to the coast with His Excellency Bishop Willinger, C. Ss. R., to address the delegates at a banquet on opening night. He gave a detailed history of Ryan Preparatory, which has been operating since 1948 (the Jesuits arrived in the fall of 1952). In addition, he explained the functioning of the Seminary as it is today, with its full complement of students and classes.

Annual-retreat time followed the first-period examinations for the student body, Oct. 17-19. Fr. O'Mara, rector of El Retiro, gave the retreat conferences to the seminarians in their chapel. Scheduled to follow the retreat was a two-day excursion to Camp Santa Teresita, the Monterey-Fresno diocesan summer camp in the Sierra foothills. Both the retreat and the vacation had been eagerly anticipated by the seminarians.

LOYOLA

V. R. Michael A. O'Grady, provincial of Ireland, stopped here overnight on his way back to Ireland, completing a round-the-world visit to the Irish province missions. Fr. John Healy, who 29 years ago entered the novitiate in Ireland on the same day as Fr. O'Grady, was on hand to meet him at the airport.

On the evening of October 12, Fr. Daniel McGloin was injured in an auto accident. His mouth was cut, requiring hospitalization. The discussion on Mortimer Adler's "Order of Learning" which Fr. McGloin was to have led at the October 16 meeting of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences was, in Fr. McGloin's absence, conducted very ably by Mr. Albert Jonsen, S. J.

V. R. Fr. Vincent A. McCormick, American Assistant, resided at Loyola U. during his stay in Los Angeles.

During the students' retreat, Sept. 25-27, Fr. John F. Connolly of Azusa was retreat master for the seniors and juniors, Fr. Eugene Toner for the sophomores and freshmen. Fr. Connolly delivered the sermon before the student body at the Mass of the Holy Ghost with which the retreat exercises were concluded.

The October 8th issue of the Loyolan was dedicated to the memory of Fr. Lorenzo Malone (R.I.P.), retracing in story and picture his life before and after becoming a Jesuit and especially his many years of devoted service at Loyola and his many valuable contributions to the development of the university.

Fr. Edward Arcusa, S. J., who for the past three years has been exiled by the communists from his native Bolivia, visited Loyola U., October 15-21.

Fr. Wm. Finnegan made his retreat here, Oct. 12-20.

MT. ST. MICHAEL'S

On September 3, Father Patrick Peyton spoke to the Catholics of the Spokane Diocese at a Family Rosary Crusade, held at the city stadium. His Excellency Bishop Bernard Topel celebrated Pontifical High Mass afterwards. A combination Gonzaga University and Mount St. Michael's choir did the singing.

The Mount Deaf Society, under the present leadership of Mr. William Stout, held a picnic for the deaf of Spokane at Mission Park. The highlight of the day was the arrival of Bishop Topel for a short visit.

On October 3 and 10 respectively Democratic Senators Magnuson and Jackson addressed the scholastics.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

Visitors. On his tour of the various provinces of the Society, Fr. Savall stopped here with the relic of St. Ignatius.

Fr. Herbert McNally, Capt. U.S.N., stopped off for a few hours on his way across country. Some were reminded of similar visits by his brother, the late Fr. Paul McNally, with his contagious enthusiasm for the Society and scientific research.

Frs. Odou, Savage and Smith lent us their good offices during the trying hot months and added much to the spirit of charitable co-operation existing in the community.

Opposition and Unity. A recent striking example of the spirit of the parish was seen in the willing support given to the organization of Little League Baseball. Under the direction of Fr. Pastor (Kelleher), business firms and parents supplied materials and labor for the considerable undertaking of clearing a field and erecting stands, fences and night-lights. Men of the parish took on the time-consuming job of coaching the various teams. The intense partisanship evidenced by the parishioners during the games only served to weld the parish into a stronger unit.

SAN FRANCISCO University

Fr. Peter Dunne was a member of a panel discussion on Columbus over Station KRE, Oakland under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. He also addressed the Fourth Annual Conference on Latin America, at Moraga.

Fr. McMahon conducted the annual retreat for the Catholic men of the University, Fr. Hynes for the non-Catholics, and Fr. Keane for the school of nursing.

Fr. McMahon also preached a series in our church on Marriage, and gave two conferences to the Children of Mary at the Convent of the Sacred Heart.

Fr. McGloin conducted a week-end retreat at the Cenacle in Sacramento for the Sacred Heart Alumnae.

Frs. Harney, Hynes and Egan attended the meetings of the NCEA held in Los Angeles.

The University was host to the representatives of the California Independent College Foundation. A dinner on the campus followed the meetings.

Fr. Smyth was a member of the Western College Association visiting the U. of C. at Davis.

Fr. McGloin represented USF at a recent meeting of the Conference of Historical Societies of California held at Sonoma.

Fr. Mulcahy gave a talk to the Holy Name Society of Holy Name Parish on "The Role of the Catholic College of Business Administration."

Fr. Collins taught at Marquette University during the Summer Session and also gave two missions to military personnel in Kodiak, Alaska.

Fr. Egan spoke at a Communion Breakfast at Our Lady of Mercy Parish.

The telephone book for the San Francisco area carries a picture of Phelan Hall on the cover.

The former army barracks on the campus have been removed to the tennis courts to make ready a place for the proposed gymnasium.

The University is offering a course in Shakespeare on TV for credit or non-credit. Over 300 have registered for credit.

Five U. S. F. students entered the novitiate and two others went to the diocesan seminary. Two more entered seminaries of other dioceses.

The Catholic Russian Center and Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima was dedicated on the anniversary of the Fatima apparition. His Excellency Bishop Donohoe officiated at the ceremonies. Many friends of Fr. Urosov, Director of the Center, attended on the occasion.

Fifty U. S. F. students held leadership conferences at Olompali. They were addressed by Fr. President (JFX Connolly), Fr. Moore, Fr. Tichenor and Hon. Judge Caulfield.

Fr. Feely is improving after a serious heart attack.

1300 women attended the annual Loyola Guild Luncheon-Fashion Show held in Phelan Hall Oct. 20. The overflow guests were served in the Green and Gold Room.

During his stay here Fr. McCormick gave energetic encouragement to the Pacelli Group of the Gentlemen's Sodality. At a meeting of the 22-member group pledged to complete adherence to papal sodality directives, he made detailed inquiry into its apostolic work. He was gratified to learn of the Sodality's weekly Mass broadcast at City and County Hospital of the instructional program for non-Catholics, and of the developing plan for Catholic social action. In connection with one of the Pacelli Group rules, he developed the notion of the Mass as a sacrifice and encouraged the men to rely on this divine source of strength for their apostolic effectiveness.

On Sunday, Oct. 14 in San Bruno, as at more than 350 similar institutions throughout the United States and Canada, the San Francisco County Jails for men and women celebrated the feast of St. Dismas, patron since 1935 of correctional institutions. The Rt. Rev. Matthew F. Connolly, representative of the Most Rev. Archbishop, celebrated a solemn Mass in the men's jail, assisted by Fr. J. Geary, chaplain of the institution, as deacon, and Mr. Jay as sub-deacon. A choir from the San Francisco College for Women sang a special Mass in honor of the Good Thief, accompanied by Mr. Peter Gaffney of the University.

Mr. Jay's presence added an element of coincidence. His father was a close friend of Fr. Ambrose Hyland, late chaplain of Dannemora, who with the help of the prisoners there erected the first chapel in honor of St. Dismas.

A Missa Cantata was celebrated in the recreation room of the women's section. The ceremonies in both sections were concluded with a blessing with an alleged splinter from the cross of the Good Thief.

High School

Eight graduates of the class of '56 have responded to vocations this year: one to the secular clergy, one to the Carmelite Fathers, and six to the Society. Mr. McCurdy, English teacher and director of dramatics, has also entered the Novitiate.

The Catholic Digest's Decency in Reading Subscription Drive was successfully sponsored and organized for the school by the Sodality. In one week the drive cleared over $3000, which will be used for a new public address system and for additions to the chaplain's library. The Sodality is also founding a scholarship fund. Another project this year is taking the patients at the Laguna Honda Old Folks' Home to Sunday Mass.

Senior Douglas Moore has been elected president of the Catholic Federation, an organization of the high school Catholic Action groups in the area. Senior Don Flynn, editor of Inside S. I., has been elected president of the San Francisco Youth Association.

The California Scholarship Federation chapter is being activated this year. Monthly meetings will feature speakers from among prominent professional men of the city.

Mr. Piser and Mrs. Austin Morris, are piloting an undefeated JV football team.

Mr. Frank King has selected "You Can't Take It With You" for the dramatics club presentation in December.

23rd. Benediction was held in the Mission Church at 4 p. m.

The students played host to some 600 girls from the bay area Catholic Women's Colleges at their Fourth Annual Open House Day, Sept. 30th. The program consisted of entertainment in the Auditorium, a buffet dinner in the gardens, Benediction in the Mission Church, and dancing on the tennis court.

"--Et Nos Mutamur In Illis": An announcement was recently made that beginning with the Fall Semester of 1957 some 30 nurses from O'Connor Hospital School of Nursing would take some Life Science and Liberal Arts Courses at Santa Clara. These courses are required by the School of Nursing for the R. N. and are taken for college credit, but are not in credit for the University's degree.

Philharmonic Orchestra: The newly formed Santa Clara Philharmonic Orchestra is jointly sponsored by the City of Santa Clara and the University. It will present its performances in the University Auditorium and will be financed by contributions from the Chamber of Commerce and local industries. Fr. Burman acts as University representative to the Association.

Lecture Series: A series of lectures, known as the "President's Lectures" was inaugurated Oct. 3rd in the deSaisset Gallery, when Erick von Kennelt-Leddin, noted Catholic author and lecturer, spoke on "A European Philosopher Views American Democracy". Fr. Flynn is director of the lecture series.

The Pan American students presented Dr. E. Beilharz in the first of a series of lectures, Oct. 11th, the topic being, "From the Monroe Doctrine to the Good Neighbor Policy", an analysis of the United States' foreign policy in relation to the Latin American countries.

Scholarship Commission: Fr. Hauck, a member of the California State Scholarship Commission, recently attended a meeting in Los Angeles (Oct. 4-5) and appeared before the Assembly Committee. Public and private agencies expressed satisfaction with the Scholarship Program ($280,000.00 to 599 students during 1956-1957) and urged its continuance and expansion. Currently 16 holders of these scholarships are enrolled at Santa Clara.

Scholarship Report: A report on Scholarships being granted during the 1956-1957 year reveals that 185 students receiving financial aid, totaling $108,535.00. Of this amount approximately $56,000.00 is provided through gifts from Alumni, Friends, Business and the State of California. The remaining $56,000.00 is made possible through the contributed services of the Jesuits Community.

Exhibits—Concerts: Some 300 women were present at the Invitational Social Preview of "Fox Gobelin Needlepoint Tapestries" in the de Saisset Gallery, Sept. 28th, sponsored by the Catala Club welcoming the Mothers of Freshmen and new students. (Fr. J. Pociask, moderator).

On Oct. 7th, Mrs. Alma Taylor, Soprano, presented a program of Italian, German, Spanish and English songs, sponsored by the San Jose Junior Music Club.

Varia: Noel Sullivan (Alumnus), who had previously founded the "Alice Phelan Sullivan Scholarship" (1912), has made an additional gift of $10,000 to Santa Clara in his will.

Fr. C. Hayn (Physics), attended a Conference on Engineering Education and Nuclear Energy held at Gatlinburg, Tenn., during the first week of Sept.

Fr. Hauck addressed the Annual Convention of the Holy Family Guild at Palmdale, Sept. 15th and together with Col. Hogan (R.O.T.C.) was guest at the Santa Clara County Fair, and was interviewed over Radio KEEN relative to the University's part in County Growth.

Fr. E. McDermott conducted the Annual Retreat for the Freshmen of Bellarmine Oct. 2-4th. He likewise gave a talk to the St. Ann's Women's Sodality at the reception held after the induction of new members on Oct. 10th.

Fr. F. Sheerin delivered the sermon at the Mass of the Holy Ghost, Sept. 25th.

V. Rev. Fr. Assistant (V. A. McCormick) was a guest at the University, and happily renewed acquaintances with the Community, Oct. 3-4.

Fr. J. Farrahar gave the Monthly Casus Oct. 8th, the subject being, "Situational Ethics."

A special Sunday Mass for students has recently been inaugurated in the Mission Church starting at 10:30.

Fr. C. Guenther was Speaker at the Sacramento Alumni gathering, Sept. 29th.
